MRS. HELEN GUNTER

Ivy Hat And Dream Come True

Mrs. Helen Gunter, Appomattox, is pictured above in her hat and corsage fashioned from ivy leaves. The ivy grew from a tiny slip dug and planted on day of ground breaking for Memorial Methodist Church.

Members were asked to plant a piece of ivy, and pray for their new church as the ivy grew. Now Mrs. Gunter's ivy is at least five feet tall. She wore the hat on day of church's dedication in April, 1962.

Memorial Methodist serves many civic groups as well as its own members. Girl Scouts and Brownies meet there reguularly, and the Church was recently hostess to the District Meeting of Womans Clubs in this area.

Clothing Construction Workshops

Lessons for beginners learning to sew, and for persons with more advanced skills are being started in several areas of the county. Those classes are conducted by leaders in the various communities who are willing to share their time in helping others improve their sewing skills. The classes are open to any county homemaker interested in the instruction offered. If you would like to participate in a clothing construction workshop, please contact the Home Demonstration Agent's office to learn what is being done in your community.

Apple Desserts

Apple desserts need never be tiring because there are so many ways to prepare them. With a plentiful supply of apples now, they can be used often for flavorful baked desserts.

A baked apple dessert with special appear for children calls for filling cored apples before baking with crushed pineapple. Then after the apples have been baked, top them with marshmallows and return to the oven for a few minutes before serving.

For a colored dessert, core some apples, being careful not to cut through the blossom end. Fill the cavity with cranberry sauce. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Then bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender.

A popular dessert is baked applecheese. To serve six, fill a pie pan or shallow baking dish with 5 cups of pared apple slices. Sprinkle lightly with lemon juice (to avert darkening) and one-fourth cup sugar. For a crispy topping, mix together ½ cup sugar and ½ cup sifted flour and season to taste with cinnamon and salt. Cut in one-fourth cup butter until mixture is granular in texture, then stir in two thirds cup grated sharp cheese. Spread the topping evenly over the apples and bake at 350 degrees about 40 minutes, or until the apples are tender. It's good served with cream, and tasty cold or a la mode.

Hidden Calories

If you're a weight watcher, beware of hidden calories. They can trick you and almost before you realize what's happening.

That lump of sugar in your cup of coffee or tea adds 16 calories. The two tablespoons of cream that makes the beverage "just right" adds 60 more. One tablespoon of butter or other fat or oil on a vegetable adds 100 calories. The tablespoon of mayonnaise on the salad adds 90 more. An egg poached or boiled, yields 75 calories, but fry it in one tablespoon of fat or oil, and it adds up to 175 calories.

A medium potato, baked in its jacket, contains 120 calories; add one tablespoon of butter, or two or three, and you've practically doubled or tricked the amount.

"Of the five and one half million known alcoholics in the U. S. about 350,000 will die this year, another 550,000 are being produced to replace these who die however."

These were some of the rather startling statements read by Mrs. Robert Pore, temperance secretary for the Appomattox Seventh - Day Adventist Church, as the asked members to join others around the world in financially supporting the churches temperance programs. Primary objectives of this program, she said, are to educate young people to obstain from alcohol, tobacco, and narcotics.

Mrs. Fore stated that alcoholism is the number one social problem in the U. S. and No. three public health problem. She said Adventist feel the only solution to those problems is to teach people that there are better ways of living than by the self - administration of narcotic drugs, she invited the members to support the program of the American Temperance Society, which produces popularized, films and publications encouraging positive living without these habits.
